

Coastguard Boating Education

Course Information

Radar

A comprehensive course to help you understand and safely operate the radar set on your vessel.

Aim: To enable competent use of radar to aid navigation and avoid collision.

Duration: 8 Hours.

Qualification: NZ Radar Certificate.

Prerequisites: it is strongly recommended that a Boatmaster certificate is gained before enrolling on this course.

This course is a component of the New Zealand Certificate in Domestic Maritime Operations (Restricted Limits) (Level 4).

Modules:

- Principles of Radar
- Components of a Radar set
- Controls
- Displays
- Discrimination
- Targets
- Radar Navigation
- Collision Avoidance

Radar Classroom Course

Learn from an experienced tutor at one of our many education centres throughout the country. This course is only available as a Classroom course.

Contact:

Phone: 0800 40 80 90

Email: info@boatingeducation.org.nz

Office: 165 Westhaven Drive, Westhaven, Auckland

KNOW WHAT YOU'RE DOING

0800 40 80 90